REGISTRATION FORM

Return this form to:
RIA Committee for International Affairs,
Royal Irish Academy,
19 Dawson Street,
Dublin 2.
Email: russia@ria.ie
www.ria.ie

RIA

ROYAL IRISH ACADEMY, 19 Dawson Street, Dublin 2. Phone: +353 1 6762570 Email: russia@ria.ie www.ria.ie

RUSSIA'S GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE:

defining a new relationship with EUROPE and AMERICA

Royal Irish Academy Committee for International Affairs · CONFERENCE · 23 November 2007

sponsored by WERMUTH ASSET MANAGEMENT GMBH (ADVISER TO THE GREATER EUROPE FUND, THE GREATER EUROPE DEEP VALUE FUND AND THE GREATER EUROPE DEEP VALUE II FUND)

www.ria.ie

REGISTRATION

08.45 Registration

SESSION 1

Chair: Dr John Doyle, Chair, RIA Committee for International Affairs and Director, Centre for International Studies, Dublin City University

09.30 Welcome by RIA President, Professor James A. Slevin
09.35 Address by Mr Justin Harman, Irish Ambassador to the Russian Federation on behalf of Dermot Ahern T.D., Minister of Foreign Affairs
09.55 Address by Mr Sergey Riabckov, Director, Department of all European Cooperation, Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs
10.05 General Discussion
10.30 Coffee Break

SESSION 2:
RUSSIA'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Chair: Mr Jochen Wermuth, Managing Partner, Wermuth Asset Management (Adviser to the Greater Europe Fund, the Greater Europe Deep Value Fund and the Greater Europe Deep Value II Fund)

11.00 Mr Fyodor Lukyanov, Editor, Russia in Global Affairs
Re-emerging Russia: Interconnection Between Foreign and Domestic Policy
11.30 Professor Stephen White, Professor of Politics, University of Glasgow
Russia's Managed Democracy
12.00 General Discussion
12.30 Lunch – participants to make their own arrangements

SESSION 3: RUSSIA – EU RELATIONS

Chair: Professor Ronald Hill, Professor of Politics, Trinity College Dublin

14.00 Dr Nadia Arbatova, Head of European Studies, Centre for European Integration, Institute for World Economy and International Relations (IMEMO), Russian Academy of Sciences,
Russia and EU: a new framework for Russian domestic and foreign policies
14.30 Mr Gunnar Wiegand, Acting Director, Eastern Europe, Southern Caucasus, Central Asian Republics, European Commission Directorate General for External Relations
EU-Russia Relations at a Crossroad
15.00 General Discussion
15.30 Coffee Break

SESSION 4:
RUSSIA AND THE US

Chair: Dr. Michael Kennedy, Editor, Documents on Irish Foreign Policy, Royal Irish Academy

15.45 Professor Margot Light, Professor Emeritus of International Relations, London School of Economics
Russian-American Relations
16.15 Professor Anatol Lieven, Professor of International Relations, Kings College, London
A Case of the Pot Calling the Samovar Black: The US-Russian struggle for hegemony in the former Soviet Union
16.45 General Discussion
17.15 End of Conference
17.30 Reception & Launch of Irish Studies in International Affairs, vol. 18, Iveagh House Department of Foreign Affairs, St. Stephen's Green.

REGISTRATION FORM

Name

Address

Tel Fax

Email

Supervisor's signature (for student discount)

Registration Fee enclosed (€90/€15) €

Registration Fee: €90 (€15 for students)
Online registration available on www.ria.ie or return this form to: RIA Commitee for International Affairs, Royal Irish Academy, 19 Dawson Street, Dublin 2. Email: russia@ria.ie Please note that fax/email bookings must be followed by fee payment within 3 days.

CREDIT CARD DETAILS

Visa ☐ Access ☐ Mastercard ☐ (Tick as appropriate)

Card No.

Expiry date: Month ☐ Year ☐

Name and Address on card account (if diferent from above)