

William Wilde

Seminar

FREE

public lecture but registration is required*

Thursday, 3 June, 6.00 p.m., Royal Irish Academy

Keynote Address: • Dr. William R. Wilde's friends and informants in Vienna 1839/40

Dr Irène Montjoye, Emerita, Department of Comparative Literature & Cultural Studies, International University of Vienna (followed by a reception)

Friday, 4 June, Royal Irish Academy — €20 Registration fee*

9.00–9.30 • Registration

9.30–10.15 • Enlightenment, romanticism and cultural nationalism: Wilde as a transitional figure

Professor Kevin Whelan, Director, Keough Naughton Centre, University of Notre Dame in Dublin

10.15–11.00 • William Wilde and some antiquarian colleagues

Dr Michael Herity, MRIA

11.00–11.30 • Coffee break

11.30–12.15 • Dr William Wilde, medicine and society

Professor Davis Coakley, St James's Hospital and Department of Medical Gerontology, Trinity College Dublin

12.15–13.00 • The aesthetics of antiquarianism — an Irish perspective

Niamh Nic Ghabhann, TRIARC, Trinity College Dublin

13.00–14.15 • Lunch — National Museum of Ireland

14.15–14.45 • Wilde as Beranger's saviour from oblivion

Dr Peter Harbison, MRIA

14.45–15.30 • Wilde's Catalogue of Antiquities and the Museum of the Royal Irish Academy

Raghnall Ó Floinn, MRIA & Mary Cahill, National Museum of Ireland

15.30–16.15 • An impulsive nature: William Wilde

Dr Michael Ryan, MRIA & Director, Chester Beatty Library, Dublin

*to register for these events, please see: www.ria.ie

RIA