

TWENTY YEARS AFTER THE BELFAST AGREEMENT 1998: A YOUNG PERSON'S GUIDE TO THE FUTURE

- 2.30 –5.00 pm / 25 April 2018
- Moot Court Room, School of Law,
Queen's University Belfast

Acadamh Ríoga na hÉireann
Royal Irish Academy

The Royal Irish Academy is organising a conversation about the main issues facing young people in Ireland twenty years after the Belfast/Good Friday Agreement. A panel made up of young people from both sides of the border, along with a variety of other speakers, will discuss the challenges facing those born around the year 1998, as Ireland seeks to move on into a post peace process future.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

DR DIRK SCHUBOTZ, School of Social Science, Education, and Social Work, Queen's University Belfast.

SIOBHÁN FENTON, writer and freelance journalist.

KOULLA YIASOUMA, NI Commissioner for Children and Young People (NICCY).

BRONAGH HINDS, Senior Associate & co-founder of DemocraShe.

PROFESSOR JOHN MORISON, MRIA, School of Law, Queen's University Belfast.

REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS 14.30

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS
Professor John Morison MRIA (Chair of Ethical, Political, Legal and Philosophical Studies
Committee of the RIA) 15.00

PANEL DISCUSSION
(Chair Bronagh Hinds) 15.15

CONCLUSIONS 17.00

RSVP FOR YOUR FREE PLACE HERE

The RIA acknowledges and thanks Donegal Youth Service, which is funded by the Department of Children & Youth Affairs, the International Fund for Ireland through the Reactiv-8 Program, and the School of Law at Queen's University Belfast for their support and cooperation in organising this event.