

Charlemont Grants application form 2021/2022

Submission deadline: 17.00 (GMT), Wednesday, 3rd November 2021.

Please read the 'Guidelines for Applicants' with care as failure to follow guidelines may result in your application being rejected.

Please use the 'Unique Submission Link' in your registration email to access your application form. Once each page is completed, and the next button is clicked, your form progress will be saved. We advise applicants to draft their answers in a word document and copy/paste the information into the form before submitting.

Previous knowledge should not be assumed as the application will be assessed purely on the basis of the information submitted within this form.

Please ensure that you do not repeat answers across different sections of the application form as each question requires different information.

Please direct all queries to: grants@ria.ie with the subject line RIA Charlemont Grants Grants

Declarations

The Academy requires the research it funds be conducted in an ethical manner. It expects accurate reporting of findings and a commitment to enabling others to replicate results where possible; impartiality of researchers to the subject of the research and fair dealing in respect of other researchers and their intellectual property. Applicants should indicate whether their proposed research raises any special ethical issues. All applicants must confirm that they (please tick as necessary): *

are aware of and have signed up to their respective institutions codes of good research conduct with respect to the conduct of research including; principles of good practice, ethical approval, competence, responsibility, integrity, rights and dignity of research participants, data management and dissemination have secured approval for the proposed research from their respective institutions research ethics committee (or its equivalent)

Independent researchers without access to formal ethical scrutiny and approval should briefly describe any special ethical issues, and explain how they will be addressed. Independent researchers should observe, where appropriate, the standards of good research conduct set out in guidelines published by scientific and learned societies, and other relevant professional bodies. Independent researchers are also requested to contact the Grants team for the RIA's Code of Conduct for Research Integrity. All researchers should be aware of the legal requirements that regulate their work. *

Please note that submitting the application form constitutes confirmation that the information provided is complete and accurate, and acceptance of all terms, conditions and notices contained in the Notes for Applicants. Subsequent discovery of any deliberate falsehood will automatically render the application null and void. If an award has been made, the Academy may require a full refund. It is the applicants' responsibility to ensure the application is received by the deadline date outlined above. Late applications will not be accepted. No exceptions will be made to this rule. *

I accept all terms, conditions and notices contained in the Guidelines for Applicants. The information I have provided is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
