

LIBRARY LUNCHTIME LECTURES • SPRING 2016

Intellectual life in Ireland 1910 - 1920

INTELLECTUAL LIFE IN IRELAND 1910 - 1920

LUNCHTIME LECTURES

Royal Irish Academy, 19 Dawson Street, Dublin 2

Free admission • No booking required

Wednesday 2 March 2016 • 1pm • Liam Mac Mathúna (UCD)

Douglas Hyde's ideology of de-anglicising the Irish nation: inspiration, input and impact, 1874–1922

Wednesday 9 March 2016 • 1pm • Chantal Kobel (TCD)

Prof. Eleanor Knott (1886–1975): Irish scholar and lexicographer

Wednesday 6 April 2016 • 1pm • Regina Uí Chollatáin (UCD)

'Gaedhilg na haimsire seo': writing processes and culture in Irish language print media 1909–1920

Wednesday 27 April 2016 • 1pm • Lawrence White (RIA)

'The triumph of failure': Desmond Ryan (1893–1964): writing the history of the Easter rising

Wednesday 4 May 2016 • 1pm • Mary E. Daly (RIA)

The Academy in a decade of revolution

Wednesday 11 May 2016 • 1pm • Nicola Gordon Bowe

'The great need of modern Ireland is to be re-united with its past ... through the intellectual cultivation of the country': the latter days of the Celtic Revival in Ireland

EXHIBITION

16 February 2016–24 June 2016 • Intellectual life in Ireland, 1910–1920

An exhibition exploring aspects of Intellectual Life in Ireland, 1910–1920, through the prism of the Academy collections of books, ephemera and photographs.

Open: Mon–Fri, 10am–5pm, except on conference days. See website for exceptions. Free admission. No individual booking required. Group bookings please contact: library@ria.ie / 01-6090620

www.ria.ie

